Steering and Rules Committee POSTPONED out of respect for fallen officer

The Monday, February 13th meeting of the Common Council's Steering and Rules Committee has been POSTPONED out of respect for fallen Milwaukee Police Officer Peter Jerving, who was killed early Tuesday (February 7) after being shot by a suspect while on duty.

Common Council President José G. Pérez said the funeral for Officer Jerving will be taking place on Monday at the same time as the previously-scheduled committee meeting. "We have been informed that the funeral for Officer Jerving is scheduled for Monday, and we want to show the utmost respect for the officer, his family, and the entire Milwaukee Police Department by postponing Monday's Steering and Rules Committee meeting," said President Pérez, who serves as the chair of the committee.

A new date and time for the Steering and Rules Committee meeting will be announced soon.
